

Something about me: My name is Julia. She was born in Lisichansk, she graduated from the art school in 2 departments: pianoforte and IZO. I was drawn very much and decided to enter the university.

In 2007, we moved the whole family to the city of Yalta (Crimea) and there I went to the Crimean Humanitarian University to the department of Fine Arts.

I began to write and sell paintings after graduation. I often traveled around the Crimea, and was very inspired by the Crimean beauties, the picturesque brightness of nature, bright people, and their diversity.

I paint landscapes, still lifes, abstraction, people with oil, acrylic, sometimes pastel and mixed techniques.

I live in the city of Novosibirsk.
